MEMORANDUM FOR: The National Foreign Intelligence Board

FROM : Richard Lehman
Acting Chairman, National Intelligence Council

SUBJECT : The DCI Role in Warning (U)

1. The DCI requested a review of the national warning system established under DCID 1/5 and options for changing that system. This task was given to the National Intelligence Officer for Warning who drafted the attached report with the assistance of the Warning Working Group. (C)

2. The DCI requests that the NFIB members and observers review the report in preparation for a January discussion of the warning problem and the DCI role in the national warning system. He is seeking advice at this time and does not intend to make a selection of options at the meeting. (C)
